

Yikes! We're lost for words. And we need your help! Fast.

A priceless book has been stolen and... and what?! The Lost Book is an online animated whodunit with graphics from Binary Fable, music from the Scottish Chamber Orchestra and the story from you, me and everyone who wants to get involved.

After the first online episode (jam-packed with clues), where the story goes is up to all of us - this is a collaborative adventure!

So, first find the website at www.thelostbook.net, then together we'll find the lost book in this intriguing, 21st century spin on The Lost World.

Join the investigation and get swept up in one of the most exciting aspects of The Lost World Read 2009.

www.thelostbook.net

This is a special travelling book.
To discover where it's been and who has read it,
go to www.bookcrossing.com and enter this number:

BCID:

Scottish chamber Orchestra